FOREWORD

Dear Guys and Dolls:

Patterns are everywhere . . . At home, the designs in carpets, draperies and other household furnishings. In nature, the symmetrical masses of shrubs and flowers; the golden filigree of autumn trees. In life itself, the patterned fabric of the years. Of these, the most fascinating, bewildering and memorable are schooldays. So with this issue of Wahwahlanawah we present you . . .

Patterns: 1952-1953

LAURA JESSIE LOMAX
Teacher, Vice-Principal, Dean of Girls 1908-1944

Dear Alumni and Former Students:

This for you; you knew and loved this gracious lady. Her life pattern you admired and respected. And what was it? To love all that was good, generous, and genuine; to disapprove only of that which was unworthy. Her teaching was always persuasive but persistent and positive.

Beautiful in person and in spirit has she not built, as Thucydides said of a great Athenian, "The grandest of all sepulchres: not one in which the mortal bones are laid but a home in the minds of men"?

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Seated: Mrs. John Wyeth, Mr. H. C. Herschman, Mrs. Paul Knepper, president; Mr. R. V. Bloomfield, secretary and asst. superintendent.

Standing: Mr. Alva F. Lindsey, attorney; Mr. E. F. Garvey, vice-president; Mr. G. L. Blackwell, superintendent; Mr. D. W. Hopkins, Mr. W. Fairleigh Enright.

Dear City Administrators:

Creating the pattern for a city school system that is up to date, economically managed and thoughtfully supervised has been your task. That you have done well is evidenced by the fact that our schools carry on through these uneasy times with efficiency. You have provided well for our physical needs; you have supported with tolerance and sympathy our desire for fun and relaxation; you have promoted the things of the spirit to flood the pattern with light, brighten and enrich its colors.

Dear Benton Administrators:

The pattern you have set for us is one of achievement. You have encouraged us to think of our school years as a piece of a larger pattern: life after graduation. You have urged us to take as our own all the knowledge we can get from books, all the skills we can acquire in practical courses, all the satisfaction that comes from work well done; and with these resources, to construct for ourselves a pattern for the full life of adulthood.

Dear Helen,
Here's wishing one of the sweetest girls I know all the luck in the world. You really deserve it! Just keep smiling and the world will be yours.
Love a friend always,
Loretta Ratliff

THE HOW OF IT

Sept. 12. All-City Jamboree. "Sparkling ground attack combined with a smooth-working passing game," and the Cards on top. Standings: Benton 39; Central 26; C. B. H. S. 20; Lafayette 13.

Sept. 19. Central-there. Anybody's game, both contenders bidding for the League crown. Reynolds, Ford, Jack McLaughlin get a writeup. Score: Benton 6; Central 6.

Sept. 26. North Kansas City-here. The Queen's night, and the Redbirds too, too tough for the Hornets. News scouts spot Wiegant, Sturgis, Phillips, Capt. Lawhon. Score: Benton 14; North Kansas City 7.

Oct.3. Wm Chrisman-there. A Cardinal come-back, though The Bears got going "great guns" during the first half. Turner and Crockett made the column. Score: Benton 16; Wm Chrisman 13.

Oct. 24. C. B. H. S.-here. One touchdown and a safety were enough to down the Eagles. Capt. Lawhon, Jim Gentry, Richardson, Waitkoss break into print. Score: Benton 9; C. B. H. S. 0.

Oct. 31. Atchison-there. An able team, but too many fumbles. Sturgis' accuracy made the difference. Featured players were Wiegant, Reynolds, Turner. Score: Benton 14; Atchison 13.

Nov. 5. Lafayette-here. An air tight game, played for keeps. The Cards tie for City League honors. The notices raved about everybody. Score: Benton 7; Lafayette 6.

Nov. 14. Savannah-there. The Cards fairly rolled along; Reynolds did a 73 yard sprint for the initial counter. Waitkoss, Wiegant, Turner were in the newscasts. Score: Benton 27; Savannah 14.

1952 CINDER DUST

A seasoned crew with an early start on work-outs—sometimes in the gym—resulted in a fine showing for the '52 track squad. Four or five seniors competed, but the bulk of the team was made up of underclassmen. A stronger point winning season is assured for '53 with Atkins, Campbell, Chatham, Clark, Ford, Gentry, Lawhon, Long, McLaughlin, Dale and Don Plumb, Reynolds, Sonner, Turner, and Wiegant in the running. Bradley Jones, '53 captain, established himself as a champion by taking first in all the meets of the '52 schedule. Lake, '52 captain, also a stellar performer throughout the season, won the Zimmerman trophy; Jones, the track shoe award.

It has really been nice knowing you these past two years. Remember all the fun we had in Light Class last year? Those were the days! I hardly ever get to talk to you now but I hope we have a lot of classes together next year. Remember General Business Class last year? It's kind of bothered Mr. Francis because we talked so much. He didn't seem to mind us talking, but when we started laughing he would sure give us a dirty look. I have really enjoyed riding on the school bus with you and I know I will see more of you next year. There's wishing a really nice girl all the happiness, success and good luck life can offer. You really are exceptionally nice, Keep kidding
